George “Meadowlark” Lemon

“Athlete, Entertainer, Motivator, Basketball Hall of Famer, Ordained Minister”

Meadowlark Lemon, the “Clown Prince of Basketball” a legendary hero in the world of sports, thrilled millions of fans with his basketball skills and slapstick comedy for more than five decades. His love of the game transcended all barriers and brought smiles to generations of fans in over 100 countries from Algeria to Zimbabwe to include Popes, Kings, Queens and Presidents. Meadowlark has appeared in feature films, television series, talk shows, and four of his own NBC Sports Specials. In 1986, Meadowlark became an ordained minister and in 1998, received his Doctorate of Divinity from Vision International University. He recently started the Meadowlark Lemon Online Academy, a fully accredited online distance learning institution for children. Additionally, the ageless hoop master also strives to reach today’s youth through Camp Meadowlark, a co-ed sports camp begun in 1989 to educate and offer children alternatives to the dangers of substance abuse. Meadowlark is married to Dr. Cynthia Lemon and resides in Scottsdale, Arizona. They recently formed the Meadowlark Lemon Foundation, an organization dedicated to “changing lives, to change the world.”

“In God we trust, united we stand”

Cokesbury Center, Epworth Hall
December 6, 2007

United We Stand

*United we stand,
Steadfast and tall,
Committed to peace,
And freedom for all.*

*For times like these,
That try all our souls,
Can renew our faith,
In ourselves and our goals.*

*Let's open our hearts,
As our proud banners wave,
O'er the land of the free,
And the home of the brave!*

*"America is not anything if it consists of each of us.
It is something only if it consists of all of us."
